Drew McLeod

Drew McLeod is a 1983 graduate of Tallahassee Community College and has resided in Tallahassee for over 36 years. As a man of faith, Drew has been happily married for 30 years to Kimberly; they have 4 children: Christian, Courtney, Gabriel, and Elijah.

Drew's passion for hospitality started at the early age of 14 when he began bussing tables at the Five Dames Restaurant in Miami, his hometown. With now over 43 years of experience, some of McLeod's Tallahassee area operations include: The Gables, Susan's Catering, Paradise Grill & Bar, Finni's Grill & Bar, Paradise Produce, The Doubletree Hotel and, most recently, Savour. Drew is a Certified Foodservice

Management Professional, the National Restaurant Association's highest level of certification for Food Safety and Foodservice Operations.

Drew's service roles reach across many different sectors of the community. Currently, he sits on the TCC Foundation Board of Directors and the Florida Restaurant & Lodging Association Board. He has also served in a directorial capacity for the Tallahassee Area Conventions and Visitor's Board and the Daytona State College Hospitality Advisory Council. His current role as Deacon at Westminster Presbyterian Church is one that Drew holds close to his heart. An ardent supporter of TCC, both as an alumnus and a parent of TCC students, Drew has become one of the major forces behind the success of the Foundation's popular Cleaver & Cork Food and Wine festival.

Drew's love of Tallahassee knows no bounds. He is passionate about sharing his story and life experiences with audiences through motivational speaking engagements, as well as encouraging Savour Team Members to grow in their hospitality prowess.
