

CLASS OF 1996

Mike Sittig

Mike Sittig, who graduated in 1978, is Executive Director of the Florida League of Cities, the organization that helps promote local self-government and which serves the needs of municipal governments in Florida. While attending TCC, Mike was a reporter on the college newspaper, The Talon. His involvement in the community includes Leadership Florida, the Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations, and the American Society of Association Executives.