Chad D. Davis

Officer Chad Davis has been with the Tallahassee Police Department for over five years and currently serves on the Community Oriented Policing & Problem Solving (COPPS) Squad and the Tactical Apprehension and Control Team (TAC). As an active officer of COPPS, Officer Davis is committed to helping the community through effective communication efforts, teamwork, and service. Before joining the Tallahassee Police Department, Officer Davis worked as an Intelligence Analyst with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement where he quickly developed passion and dedication in serving and protecting our communities. His biggest inspiration is his son Jackson Daniel, who he strives to be a positive role model for.

Born and raised in Wakulla County, Officer Davis graduated from Wakulla High School in 2005. After graduating high school, he obtained a bachelor degree in Business Administration from Flagler University and continued his education by receiving a master's degree in Criminal Justice from Valdosta State University.

When Officer Davis is not working, you will find him spending quality time with family, working out, and enjoying the outdoors. Officer Davis is honored to serve the wonderful residents of Tallahassee and hopes to continue to serve the community through diligence, hard work, and trustworthiness.
